HE HAS RETURNED!

A man-made typhoon roared out of the Pacific and covered the first American landing in the reconquest of the Philippines. The man with the four star insignia and the firm jaw who watched the attack from the deck of a cruiser saw something more than the immediate action.

He "saw" Bataan. He had been "seeing" it all during the "age" that had passed since he left. Bataan—the gaunt faces of half-starved men. Bataan—"We'll hold out until help comes," his men had vowed. Bataan—day by day the Japs grew stronger, his men weaker. Bataan—now the food was all but gone, the ammunition running dangerously low. Raw courage was their last weapon.

Then came word from Washington. The General was ordered to leave for Australia. As the little torpedo boat slipped away from the shore of the Philippines he looked back. "I shall return," he said.

But Australia was thousands of miles away. The tide of Japanese conquest had already rolled far to the south and was lapping on the very shores of the land "down under." What if Australia should fall to the little brown men who had set out to rule Asia and the Pacific? The road back might be blocked forever.

Even if Australia survived, the task still would be Herculean. But the first painful and shaky steps back toward the goal came a few months later—Guadalcanal. Then Rendova and New Georgia—Bougainville—New Britain—Salamaua—Lae—Hollandia—the Halmaheras. Back westward and northward through steaming jungles and stinking swamps that crawled with insects—and Japs—and death. But the march went on.

"I shall return," he said. General MacArthur had kept his promise.

Ibsen's Famous Play,
"A Doll's House"
Now At Geary Theatre

At the Geary theatre in San Francisco James B. Cassidy is presenting his all-star cast of Ibsen's immortal stage drama "A Doll's House" one of the most celebrated plays of all time. In the cast of "A Doll's House" are Francis Lederer, well known actor of the stage and screen; Philip Merivale, Lyle Talbot, Dale Melbourne, young Australian star; Jane Darwell, who won the Academy Award for her portrayal of Ma Joad in "Grapes of Wrath" and Keven McClure of radio and stage fame.

Ibsen's "A Doll's House" is one of the famous plays that are in the 'must' of lovers of the stage, and has long served as a starring vehicle for celebrated actors and actresses. It is a gripping drama of real life. The play is scheduled for a limited run and is playing to packed houses. Mail orders will be filled promptly.

Lieutenant Governor

FRED HOUSER

Fred Houser has a record, through three terms as an Assemblyman and as Lieutenant Governor, of staying on the job. Never has he shirked his official duties! He is a student of Government, having taught this subject in university. He led the "Economy Bloc" in the state legislature in saving the taxpayers $200,000,000—yes, by staying on the job.

Fred Houser was elected Lieutenant Governor with the Republican vote and one-third the Democratic vote. In three assembly contests he had the endorsement of the A. F. of L. He is young, vigorous, and a tireless fighter. His co-workers in the state legislature—those who know him best—acclaim Fred Houser as one of the ablest men ever named as a candidate for a high public office in California.

Tips From Local Office Of O. P. A.

(Editor's note: this column is prepared for The Record's readers by the local OPA board, No. 83-12-3, 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco, and is printed by this newspaper for the convenience of both the public and the board.)

With the approach of V-Day and thought turning to postwar planning, it is quite often necessary for us on the board, in order to get our feet on the ground and take care of the matters at hand, to review the preamble to the Emergency Price Control Act. We would like to pass it on to you to read. It embodies what OPA is working to accomplish.

"It is hereby declared to be in the interest of the national defense and security and necessary to the effective prosecution of the present war, and the purposes of this Act are to stabilize prices . . . prevent speculative increases in prices and rents, eliminate . . . and prevent profiteering . . . assure that defense appropriations are not dissipated by excessive prices . . . protect persons with relatively fixed and limited incomes from undue impairment of their standard of living . . . to prevent hardships to persons engaged in business, to schools, universities, and other institutions, and to the Federal, State, and local governments, which would result from abnormal increases in prices; to assist in securing adequate production of commodities and facilities; to prevent a post emergency collapse of values; to stabilize agricultural prices . . . and to permit voluntary cooperation between the Government and producers, processors, and others to accomplish the aforesaid purposes."

Because of the work the OPA has done in line with the above preamble, people have been protected; hardships have been prevented; voluntary cooperation has been given; effective prosecution of the war has been aided; the day of victory has been brought closer. It is your cooperation with the rationing program which has made the lofty purposes of this wartime act become realities.

Are you entitled to wear a "target" label button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.

Delicate Glow

SIGNIFICANT of the accepted swing toward greater after-dark elegance, the Chicago Fashion Industries introduce the soft-ened version of a short dinner dress. To accent the subtle flattery of a pale pink background, CBS actress Kay, ("Bachelor's Children") Westfall selected a model delicately embroidered in a peacock leaf design of sparkling blue beads. Balancing the severe beauty of the blouse, the black skirt is caught in a side drape over the left hip.

VICTORY IN SIGHT—Allied generals were cheered by the news of the invasion of Germany. Left to right, front line: Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Gen. Joseph Koenig, military commander of Paris, and British Air Marshal Arthur Tedder. With them are American, British and French staff officers. (U. S. Signal Corps photo.)

There's an oar here for!

It's a lifesaving job, all right! And the lifeboat must be manned by us civilians on the home front.

There are lives of refugee Chinese and Greek children to be saved. There are lives of our own servicemen's children here at home to be sustained and cared for.

There are comfort and cheer to be given to war prisoners.

There is entertainment to be provided for our fighting men abroad through the U.S.O. Camp Shows.

All these need any more at home and abroad covered by your one gift to your local Community.

So take up your share. Give more than you can.

A lot to do with Apples!

NO ONE NEEDS a recipe to enjoy a good eating apple, whether the occasion be Halloween or just any day at all. But for apples that are better when cooked, here are appetizing suggestions.

GLAZED BAKED APPLES

(These are the kind you get in fine restaurants—but there's nothing complicated about preparing them): Wash 6 large baking apples, remove blossom ends, and core about 2 inches deep. Fill each cavity with 1 or 2 tbsps. sugar, dash of cinnamon and nutmeg. Place in baking dish, with small amount of water. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 45 minutes. Make syrup of 1 cup sugar and 1 cup water; boil 5 minutes. Remove cover for last 15 minutes of baking, and baste frequently with syrup. Serve warm or cold, with cream or chilled custard sauce.

And if you like apple sauce in full, crystal-clear pieces, then try this recipe for

TRANSPARENT APPLE SAUCE

Wash 6 medium-size cooking apples, pare, quarter, remove cores. Place apples in saucepan; add ½ cup water. Top with 1½ cups sugar. (¼ tsp. nutmeg and ½ tsp. cinnamon may be added.) Do not stir. Cover; cook slowly without stirring until apples are tender and transparent (about 20 to 30 minutes). Cool with cover on.

To go with roast pork or ham, surprise your family with

CATSUP APPLES

Core, but do not peel cooking apples. Cut in half crosswise, and place in baking dish, cut side up. Top each half with ½ tsp. catsup and ½ tsp. butter or margarine. Add enough water to cover the bottom of the dish. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for about 30 minutes. Just before serving, turn the cut sides of the apples down, to absorb the juice.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

How can Germany and Japan be kept from embarking on future wars of conquest? The Brookings Institution has just issued a research study on this subject called "The Control of Germany and Japan," prepared by Dr. Harold G. Moulton, President of the Institution, and Dr. Louis Marlio, French economist and industrialist. The five judges of the Book-of-the-Month Club thought so highly of this work that they have arranged to send copies to the Club's entire membership.

H. G. MOULTON

Writes Harry Scherman, President of the Book-of-the-Month Club: "Our Editorial Committee regards the Brookings study as the most enlightening document on the peace, from the point of view of practicality, that has yet been published. The study reveals that there are a certain few economic controls which, if supported by available military force, can be fully effectual in all the foreseeable circumstances. These conclusions are so well buttressed with fact and sensible reasoning, and they are so likely to appeal to sober opinion over the world, that they can hardly be ignored by the peacemakers."

In "Tall Talk from Texas" by Boyce House, we found this one about Jake Lyerla, who was a candidate for county office out in Central West Texas a good many years ago. One day Lyerla was making a speech, when somebody interrupted: "Are you for or against organized labor?" Lyerla promptly replied: "I'm opposed to labor, organized or unorganized; that's why I'm a-runnin' for public office."

Commander Kenneth D. McCracken, in "Baby Flat-Top," tells of paying a call to the navigator of another ship for some local data. The man, with whom he had previously been on good terms, scowled when he came in, paced back and forth, and spoke in angry monosyllables. McCracken was about to give up and leave, when a sailor rushed in. "Air mail letter for you, sir," he said. The navigator grabbed it, studied the handwriting a moment, then his face relaxed. Suddenly he became gracious, charming and talkative. "Sit down while I read this letter from my wife," he said. "When I don't get letters from her, I'm irritable. However," he added earnestly, "I never show my feelings."

Do you know how to put your best foot forward for company without suffering from kitchen fatigue? Nancy Holmes of the Best Foods kitchens suggests a few points to observe so you can remove the apron when the doorbell rings and greet your guests with a smile.

Set the table, making sure that the silver is highly polished, the crystal gleams, that all serving pieces are handy. Plan food that is simple and easily served—but plan garnishes and such to give it an attractive air that will inspire your guests' appetites.

One simple dish that Nancy suggests is Bouquet Appetizer Salad. It is made of only three fruits with a delicious real mayonnaise variation but, as you see, it is so beautifully dressed up your guests will be impatient to begin.

BOUQUET APPETIZER SALAD
Pears, peeled, sectioned
1½ cups grapes
½ cup maraschino cherries, halved
Chicory or salad greens
Fluffy mayonnaise
OR
Appetizer mayonnaise

Remove center from 8-inch paper doilies. Paste dolly border around upper edge of glass sherbets. Arrange fruit and chicory in sherbets. Serve with Fluffy Mayonnaise or Appetizer Mayonnaise.

To make Fluffy Mayonnaise: Fold ½ cup real mayonnaise into 1 small, stiffly beaten egg white.

To make Appetizer Mayonnaise: Beat ¼ cup real mayonnaise and ½ cup French Dressing together until smooth. Yield: 6 servings.

That Decorative Touch

Do your meals "sparkle"? Do your friends "enthuse"? Are your dishes "copied" by guests? Or are you one of those unfortunate women who always sets an "ordinary" table, serves "ordinary" foods and never gets the thrill of compliments?

In many cases there is very little difference between your meal and that of a more fortunate friend. The cooking is equal. The china and silver are the same. The meats and vegetables came from the corner store. But your neighbor has "that decorative touch" and you haven't. She slips a spray of parsley on her steak, a big red cherry on her fruit cup, a wafer of pepper over each slice of tomato and an attractive topping on her dessert. Immediately her meal is enhanced. The eyes of the family sparkle. She has that decorative touch.

Cultivate that decorative touch. It will pay you time and time again. Through it you will induce children to eat foods they now refuse, and even non-milk drinking children may be taught to "eat" milk, provided you serve it in a decorative tive dessert like the following:

Chocolate Sundae Rennet-Custard
1 package vanilla rennet powder
2 cups milk (not canned)
Chocolate Sauce
Peppermint Stick Candy

Set out 4 or 5 individual dessert dishes. Warm milk slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist frequently. When COMFORTABLY WARM (110° F.) not hot, remove at once from heat. Add rennet powder and stir briskly until dissolved — not over 1 minute. Pour at once, while still liquid, into dessert dishes. Let stand at room temperature until set — about 10 minutes. Chill.

Prepare a chocolate sauce by melting sweet milk chocolate in a double boiler and blending with enough cream to make a thick sauce consistency (about 1/4 cup cream to 2 ounces chocolate). Cool, and just before serving, pour a pool of chocolate sauce into the center of each rennet-custard. Then sprinkle crushed peppermint stick candy over the chocolate sauce, and serve immediately. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

School Children To Collect Tin

Daly City's Salvage for Victory committee today reminded local householders to save their tin for the pupils of the Jefferson district schools who are patriotically collecting it for the war effort. All tin cans should be thoroughly cleaned, delabeled, and flattened.

Any youngster in the neighborhood will take donations of tin to the school collection depot or, where the box would be too large for a child to carry, the resident is urged to take the contribution to the school nearest his home.

7 GOOD REASONS FOR Meat on the Table

1. Meat for Complete Proteins.
2. Meat for B Vitamins.
3. Meat for Iron and Copper — build good, red blood.
4. Meat for Phosphorus — a dietary essential.
5. Meat for Easy Digestibility.
6. Meat for Palatability.
7. Meat for "Satiety Value" — that lasting satisfaction after the meal.

The meat rationing system was worked out to insure each family's getting a fair share of the civilian meat supply. Your government recognized the fact that meat is necessary for the health of every person in the country.

Don't neglect this important food in meal planning, simply because it may not be convenient to purchase. Spend your red points wisely, for sensible cuts of good meats. Let FARMERS' quality be your guide.
